Viking Ariel
May Be Out
In Two WeeksSeveral Changes Made In 1929
Year Book, Say
Editors

By Francis Nemacheck

The Viking Ariel will be released within two weeks, according to information given out this week by Arthur Mueller, '29, editor-in-chief of the 1929 year book. The printers have already begun the color work, and several sections have been completed, but no definite date of release can be made since it is impossible to make an exact estimate of the time necessary to complete the binding of the books.

Except for the distribution of the copies, the work of the Ariel staff for the year has been practically completed, and according to the staff heads, quite successfully. It has been the aim of the editors this year to turn out a publication aiming at quality rather than quantity.

With this idea in mind, several initial changes were made early in the year. It was determined that a greater percentage of the space should be devoted to editorial matter. The results are apparent. The book has been increased in size, relatively less space has been devoted to advertisements, the athletic section has forty pages, eight more than ever before, and the editorial portion has had an increase of twenty-one pages. In addition, the page size has been changed from the smaller size of the past few years to the standard annual page of 7 3/4" x 10 3/4".

Make-up

The general makeup of this year's Ariel, it is said, is better and more artistic than ever before. The Viking theme has been carried throughout, and all art work and editorial matter has been worked over to fit in with the idea.

According to the printers, the material is printing exceptionally well. Hundred pound white paper, the best obtainable for the purpose, is being used. A color combination of blue-green, orange and black is being employed. The cover, of old mission grain leather, is being printed in green and gold, and the big division pages, eight in number, are of pebble grained paper and are in all three colors. The sub-insert pages, like the division pages, are suggestive of different phases of Viking life, and are of pen and pencil effect. They are the work of Robert Eads, '31. The cuts being used are deeper and bigger than those employed in past years, and add to the general artistic effect through the better and bigger picture they give. The art work of the 1929 Ariel has been done almost entirely by students.

Several features add to the attractiveness of this latest Lawrence year-book. Every sorority has a picture of its formal or informal on the page opposite the group picture. The Lawrence "scenes" section has been enlarged, and through the employment of diffused photography, is much more artistic. In addition, the conservatory section has several new surprise features.

R. J. Watts Home From
Minneapolis Meeting

R. J. Watts has returned from Minneapolis, where he attended a meeting of the Association of University and College Business officers on May 3 and 4.

One of the discussions at the meeting brought out the fact that although tuition at the state universities is free, the tendency is to increase the incidental fees. This has become necessary because the cost of education is increasing, and because students are demanding more in the way of opportunities in education, Watts said.

Sage Thief Escapes
Sunday With Loot
Of Money, Jewelry

No trace has yet been found of the burglar who broke into the rooms of Alice Aldrich and Dorothy Dana, both '29, at Russell Sage hall Sunday night and escaped with money and jewelry valued at $200. Several clues are being followed up by the Appleton police, who were called as soon as the robbery was discovered.

The burglar, a short, heavy-set man of about forty-five, wearing a brown felt hat and a heavy overcoat, was first seen prowling around the premises by William Meyer, '31, at about 10:30 o'clock, Sunday night. Thinking he was a peeper, Meyer summoned Bruce MacInnis, '29, and Leonard Henriksen, '28, who were just leaving Sage, and the man was caught as he was about to leave the terrace on the west side of the hall.

Upon questioning, the prowler stated that he was merely "looking for a place to sleep," and after a short cross-examination, the men permitted him to go on his way.

At 11:30 o'clock the robbery was discovered, and the police summoned. It was found that two rooms had been entered through the windows on the terrace, and that the man had escaped with all the jewelry and money he could gather.

Cast For May Fete
Play Is Chosen By Miss Welty, Director

"The Six Who Pass While The Lentils Boil" To Be Presented

The cast for the May Fete play, "The Six Who Pass While The Lentils Boil" by Stuart Walker, has been announced by Miss Lucile Welty, who is directing the play.

Those taking part are: Prologue, Helena Holset, '31; Device Bearer, Ruth Ann Linn, '29; the Boy, Margaret Boslough, '29; the Queen, Bernita Danielson, '29; the Butterfly, Elsie Stevens, '31; You (in the audience), Irene Ungrodt, '31; the Milkmaid, Helen Upham, '29; the Ballad Singer, Madge Helmer, '29; the Mime, Rubie Diebert, '31; the Blind Man, Verel Knaup, '28; the Dreadful Headman, Mary Gregory, '28.

The motif for the festival, which will be held May 26, is "The Queen's Revels". The celebration opens with a processional and the crowning of Lawrence's best-loved girl as May Queen. The queen and her two attendants will be elected some time this month.

After the crowning of the queen the rest of the program will be devoted to a presentation of entertainment for her. Besides "The Six Who Pass While The Lentils Boil", there will be folk dancing, natural dancing, tumbling, and choral singing. Practices for the dances are being held each week under the direction of Miss Katherine Wisner, who has general charge of the whole fete. The winding of the May Pole will conclude the program.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson
Is Convocation Speaker

Miss Elizabeth Wilson, '30, who has been engaged in Y.W.C.A. work in the United States and India, spoke on the subject of the Geneva conferences in convocation Monday morning. Miss Wilson, who was formerly professor of English Literature at Lawrence, traced the development of the "Y. M." and Y.W.C.A. at Lawrence, and stressed the importance of the Geneva conferences. It is not the lake or the scenery that attracts, according to Miss Wilson, but the inspiration and information that the students gain from the conferences. In conclusion the speaker urged that as many students as possible attend the conference this year.

Music Fete
To Be Best
In History

Music Festival Will Be Held
Sunday and Monday In Chapel

With artists of note, the famous Minneapolis Symphony orchestra and the Schola Cantorum, the sixth annual May Music Festival, to be held at the chapel on Sunday and Monday, promises to be the greatest in the history of that enterprise.

The orchestra, which will play for all three of the concerts, is recognized as the outstanding American symphony orchestra. Its leader, Henri Verbrugghen, is an able musician, having had a successful career both as a concert violinist and as conductor of orchestras. He has been with the Minneapolis orchestra since 1923.

Jeannette Vreeland, soprano, Helen Mueller, contralto, Oscar Heather, tenor, and Barre Hill, baritone, will sing the solo parts of "Elijah." Gladys Brainard, pianist of the conservatory faculty, will appear as soloist on the matinee program.

Dean Carl J. Waterman has trained Schola Cantorum, a mixed chorus of two hundred voices, to present the "Elijah" for the opening concert of the festival. This oratorio, being dramatic in character and containing lovely harmonies, is effectively given by large choral groups.

An unusually fine program has been arranged for the matinee concert on Monday afternoon. Although a full orchestral concert, the music will be of a more popular nature, including several selections from Bizet's opera, "Carmen", and the big overture to Wagner's "Tannhauser". Students are urged to attend this concert for which the prices have been greatly reduced.

The final concert will be on Monday evening with Brahms' C minor Symphony as the outstanding number. Other noted classical compositions will be presented by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra.

Seventeen People To Take Part In Plays

Seventeen people have been chosen to take part in the three commencement plays which are to be given on the afternoon of June 8 in the little theatre. The plays this year will be "The Beau of Bath" by Constance Mackey, "Love, Honor, And—" by Ray Richards, '28, and "Neighbors" by Zona Gale. The first two plays have been given at previous meetings of the Sunset Players while "The Neighbors" is to be performed by members of the dramatic art class.

The three people who will take part in "The Beau of Bath" are: Diehl Snyder, '29, who plays the role of the Beau; Helen Upham, '29, as Rosamond, and Herbert Ungrodt, '30, as Jepson.

Ray Richard's play, "Love, Honor, And—" includes a cast of six. The part of Don will be played by Jack Willem, '31, and that of Dot, by Ione Kreiss, '28. The role of Toots has been given to Elsie Stevens, '31, and opposite her Ross Cannon, '30, will play the part of Scotty. Donald Christensen, '30, will take the part of Dizz; and Rubie Diebert, '31, that of Babe.

The eight players who will appear in "Neighbors" by Zona Gale are as follows: Bernita Danielson, '29, as Mis' Abel; Ramona Fox, '28, as Grandma; Charlotte Waterman, '29, as Inez; Catherine Fintel, '29, as Mis' Moran; Lilah Moore, '28, as Mis' Trot; Elmer Ott, '28, as Ezra Williams; and Pauline Beckwith as Mis' Ellsworth.

John Barnett, '26, and James Barnett, '25, visited at the Beta Sigma Phi house over the week-end.

Lawrence Alumnus For April Comes Off Press;
Dan Hardt Is Editor

The April number of the Lawrence Alumnus, edited by Dan Hardt, '26, was issued last week, and contains several unusually interesting features. "The Story of Old Ironsides" by Dr. John B. MacHarg, an article which traces the history of the famous man o' war, is made more interesting by several illustrations, which show various parts of the ship and its battle with the Guerriere.

"What the Colleges are Doing" by Dr. Henry M. Wriston discusses the effective college. There is also a reprint from a letter to the Appleton Post-Crescent, in which the trustees explained the choice of the site for the new gymnasium. "Four Fundamentals of Life", the second of the series of three addresses which Dr. Henry Hitt Crane delivered to the Lawrence student body last year, is also in this issue.

A letter from Ellen Tutton, in which she notes the comments of a Frenchman who compares the American and European woman, is another interesting feature. There is also a picture of the men's glee club and one of the new gymnasium.

The editorials comment on commencement, campus sports, basketball and the new football coach. Under the heading of Lawrence athletics appears a picture of Coach Rasmussen, another of the basketball team, a resume of the basketball season and track prospects.

An article by Elizabeth Wilson, '30, tells of numerous alumni whom she saw on a recent trip to the west. Campus and alumni notes, poems by Anna Marie Perschbacher, Helena Koletzke, and Jessica Nelson North also appear in this issue.

Alumni Reunion Held
By Sigma Phi Epsilon

One hundred members of Sigma Phi Epsilon attended a banquet which was the climax of the third quadrennial reunion of the fraternity. It was held at the Northern hotel, Saturday evening, May 5.

Sixty-five alumni and thirty-five actives of the local chapter were present at the banquet, an outstanding feature of which was the re-election of Professor Albert Franzke as president of the householding corporation of the fraternity. William Wright, '25, was elected vice president; and Clement Ketchum, '21, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The program consisted of speeches, impromptu stunts, and music. Among the speakers was G. E. Buchanan, patron, and Lloyd Watson, '16, of Chicago, served as toastmaster. Telegrams and letters of greeting and remembrance, including a cable from Harry Snyder, '27, from Beirut, Syria, were read.

Crowning the week-end of May 4, 5, and 6, the banquet was the primary attraction of a schedule of events which included dinners at the fraternity house, bridge, golf, and bowling tournaments, and an interfraternity baseball game.

Hold Alpha Gamma Phi
Reunion This Week-end

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Alpha Gamma Phi, oldest sorority on the campus, will be celebrated at a reunion this week-end. A delegation of about fifty alumni is expected to attend.

The program for the week-end includes a luncheon to be held at the Conway Saturday noon, a bridge tea at the sorority rooms in the afternoon, and a spring informal at the Conway in the evening.

Professors Assigned
For Early Registration

Advance spring registration, which was begun at Lawrence last year, is now on. Two professors have been assigned to each class and will have charge of the entire registration for that particular group, instead of having students alphabetically divided among several advisors, as has previously been the custom.

This year's freshmen will register with Dr. Louis C. Baker or Dr. John Lymer. Sophomores will register with Dr. A. H. Weston or Professor J. H. Farley, and juniors will be taken care of by Dr. A. A. Trever and Dr. L. A. Youtz.

Notices have been sent out to all the students making appointments for registrations, and these appointments are to be kept unless advance arrangements are made.

"Cathedrals" Topic
Of French Lecturer
Here Wednesday

M. du Gord Will Speak At Appleton
Vocational School Tomorrow
Night

M. Armand du Gord, noted French lecturer, will appear at the Appleton Vocational school under the auspices of the French club to lecture on the subject of French Cathedrals, tomorrow night.

M. du Gord has been in America only about four years and is a member of the faculty at Northwestern university. His courses at the university are lectures in French, which all students of French must attend at least once a week.

Du Gord is a member of a wealthy family which owns a large estate in the Loire valley. He received his education at the Sorbonne, and has travelled extensively in Palestine, Turkey and the Near East. He served for three years in the French legion in Algeria.

The slides which are used to illustrate his lecture on French cathedrals were made from pictures which M. du Gord took himself, and are particularly fitted to the lecture.

Tickets may be bought from any member of the French club.

Recital Presented At
Peabody Hall Friday

Twelve students from the studios of Helen Mueller, contralto, and Hudson Bacon, pianist, gave a recital at Peabody hall on Friday evening.

Those who appeared on the program were: Henrietta McDermott, Emma Lou Williams, Louise Fisher, Helen Hector, Leora Calkins, Margaret Jones, Dorothy Place, Lynda Peterman, Louella Erbe, Gertrude Edwards, Clayton Ritchie, and Lois Schilling. Lucille Nelson and Everett Roubush were the accompanists.

Sarah Loomins of Madison spent the week-end with Ellen Stuart, '30.

Half Mile Relay Mark Is Shattered
By Blue and White
Runners

In the seventh annual Hamline relay carnival, held last Saturday at St. Paul, Coach A. C. Denney's Lawrence college entries placed in every event in which they were entered, winning the half mile relay in the record breaking time of 1:32.1. In the medley relay, the blue and white team took second place, and DeGoy Ellis placed fourth in the high jump, which was a special event.

Lawrence Sets Mark

By winning the college class half mile relay, the Lawrence tracksters finished a good ten yards ahead of Hamline and Carleton, who ran second and third, and the Vikings established a new record by a margin of 2.2 seconds. The old mark was set by Carleton college last year. Don Hyde started this race for Lawrence, Howard Pope and Ray Brussat ran second and third, and Doug Hyde finished in the role of anchor man.

In the medley relay, a new record of 7:59 was set by Lombard college of Galesburg, Illinois, when they beat out the Lawrence entry by a small margin. After leading to the last lap of the final mile, the Vikings were outrun by the Illinois team, and were forced to take a second place. In this race, Doug Hyde ran the 220, Don Hyde stepped the 440, Ray Menning the half mile, and Charlie Wolfe carried the baton in the mile.

Ellis, Jumps Jump Off

After tying for third place in the high jump, DeGoy Ellis, the only Lawrence entry in the special events, lost out in the jump off at 5 feet, 5 inches, to take a fourth place. There were no outstanding jumps made in this event, as the take off was in poor condition, and the athletes were unable to get off to a good start.

Lombard college, Galesburg, Illinois, was the only team in the meet to take two first places. In the medley relay they smashed the old record to take a first place, and their second victory came in the two mile event, which they won easily in 8:42.1. This was several points from the new mark that was set by Carleton last year.

According to authorities this was the best meet in the history of the relays, four hundred and fifty athletes participating. Nine old records were broken and a tenth was tied.

"ONCE UPON A TIME—"

Once upon a time there was a college called Lawrence. Being an up-to-date college, Lawrence had a student senate. But this student senate was an unusual senate, because it was conscientious and did things of benefit and worth to the school. And this Student Senate continued to be active in school affairs for many, many years, until there came a time when it no longer had power, under its constitution, to do many of the things a student senate nominally takes care of. Upon learning of this sad state of affairs, the officers of the Senate sent heralds abroad throughout the campus, telling the students that they, the senate, were going to revise the law of the land, known as the All-college club constitution. The news was received with joy and festivity among the students, and inspired by this fine display of interest the senate immediately went into session on the new constitution. After a few months of hard work they presented the revised law to the student body. To be sure, the law was by no means perfect. It had its flaws, many of which could be remedied, but the students rejoiced because they recognized the enterprising spirit with which the senate had gone to work, and they ratified and adopted the new law, and under its rule they lived happily ever after, the All-college club president, the Lawrentian editorial writer, and all the dwellers on the campus of Lawrence.

THE RELAY TEAM

The Viking relay team has just returned from St. Paul where, in competition with many of the outstanding colleges of Minnesota and the Midwest conference, they copped off a large share of the honors. They won the half mile relay in a record shattering pace, and placed second in the medley run. In this race also, they broke the previous record for the distance, only to lose because Lombard set a new mark for the Hamline relays. The relay team is to be congratulated upon its wonderful showing at Hamline. With this start Lawrence can look for them to drag home many points in the remaining meets of the year.

The Sig Eps, Phi Kaps and D.L.'s are wedged in a three way tie for first place in the interfraternity kittenball league after one week of play, in which each team was scheduled to play three games. The Phi Taus, who occupied a 1,000 per cent berth for a few days, were smashed from their pinnacle Thursday by the D.L.'s, and again Saturday by the Sig Eps, putting the Theta Phi-Psi Chi and the Phi Kap-Delta Sig games. The Phi Kaps and Delta Sigs played their game Saturday afternoon.

Phi Kaps 19; Psi Chi 5

The Phi Kaps bunched hits to score in every inning except the seventh in their game with the Psi Chi Thursday. After the Phi Kaps had piled up a 7 to 0 lead the Psi Chi made a bold attempt to tie the count in the third inning when they bunched hits and a Phi Kap error for three runs. The Phi Kaps just about put the game away in the fourth, however, when they crossed the plate for five counters. Four runs in the fifth and three in the sixth accounted for the remainder of the Phi Kap runs.

The D.L.'s took their second straight win from the Phi Taus Thursday when they emerged on the long end of a 6-2 score. The Phi Taus crossed the plate for both of their tallies in the third inning, while the sixth inning proved to be the best for the D.L.'s, three runs being scored by them in this period. The victors scored seven hits and no errors, and allowed their opponents five hits. Three errors were made by the Phi Taus.

Sets will be played off by elimination in a winners' and losers' tournament, the winners being determined by two out of three sets. The Wisner cup will be awarded after the final match, which will be played May 26.

A schedule of the games is posted in the gym. The following girls have entered the competition: Zemlock, Matheson, E. Ziegler, '28; Buritz, Upham, Christman, Lockard, Niess, '29; Fullerton, Hubbard, Stuart, Balgie, Brooks, Jacobson, Warren, H. Ziegler, '30; Rudin, Oestreich, Wiley, Krause, Diebert, and Warn, '31.

Phi Kaps 8; Delta Sigs 3

The Phi Kaps kept their slate clean at the expense of the Delta Sigs Saturday afternoon, when they bunched hits in the first and sixth inning for three runs in each. The Delta Sigs made their last stab a victory in the first stanza, tying the count at three all, but they went into a total eclipse in the second and did not emerge during the rest of the game.

D.L.'s 10; Betas 2

The D.L.'s, with Rasmussen pitching a three hit game, kept themselves in the perfect percentage column by defeating the Betas Saturday, scoring ten runs to the losers' two. The Betas bunched all their hits in the sixth inning, but Rasmussen worked himself out of a tight hole by allowing only one run to come in. Three errors, all in the fourth period, were made by the Union-st. aggregation, while the Betas had six chalked up against them. Jackola allowed the D.L.'s twelve hits.

Betas .....0 0 0 1 0 1 0—2

Batteries: D.L.'s—Rasmussen and Voeks; Betas—Jackola and Scott.

Sig Eps 4; Phi Taus 0

After three scoreless innings, the Sig Eps broke the ice with three runs in the fourth and followed through with another in the fifth while they held the Phi Taus without a counter in the first shut-out game of the season, Saturday afternoon. Bob Phenecie, '31, twirling for the Sig Eps allowed the Phi Taus only six hits which he kept well scattered. Only one error was made by the winners, which went a long way in determining the "goose-egg" total of the Phi Taus.

Tennis Team Loses To Marquette, 5-1

The Lawrence five man tennis team was defeated 5 to 1 by the Marquette university court squad in a dual meet played in Milwaukee Saturday. John Robson, '28, and Art Parker, '30, turned in the only Lawrence victory in a doubles match with Krizek and Houghton, by a score of 5-7, 6-3, 8-6.

The Vikings were on the short end in every singles match, Hanson '30, being the only Lawrence man to win a singles set from Marquette. Dr. A. D. Power, who is in charge of the squad, was well impressed by the showing made by the Vikings and feels that the short practice period that the team has had accounts in a large measure for their defeat. With favorable weather it is expected that the squad will round into much better form for the meet with Oshkosh, which will be played here Friday, May 11.

The summary:

Singles

Casper (M) defeated Rempel (L) 6-1, 6-1.

Trivoli (M) defeated Hanson (L) 5-7, 6-3, 6-4.

Krizek (M) defeated Robson (L) 6-4, 6-1.

Doubles

Parker-Robson defeated Krizek-Houghton 5-7, 6-3, 8-6.

By JAMES COLLIER FORD

THE SIAMESE CAT—by Leon Underwood. Brentano's $3.00.

Dogs have held a secure place in literature for some time—witness BOB, SON OF BATTLE and Christopher Morley's WHERE THE BLUE BEGINS and Albert Payson Terhune's popular short stories about Sunnybrook. John Galsworthy wrote a rather sentimental, but very touching and tender story about his dog in MEMORIES, and there have been many others who have honored their canine companions in this way.

However, it remained for an artist to commit to literature the feline species. Leon Underwood, who is to be remembered among other things for his striking and original linoleum blocks in JOHN PAUL JONES, has written this fantasy about a cat.

The story is whimsical and to be "catty" in Mr. Underwood's clever fashion would only be to deserve admiration. Sam is no alley cat or back-fence gangster. He is that exotic thing—a Siamese gentleman—with high ideals that amount to a hysteria when politics are mentioned, artistic and aesthetic sensibilities, and an altruism that is really tremendous.

Mr. Underwood weaves in through his narrative a certain philosophy or artistic theory of life which is most interesting. That an artist should have opinions on life and its ways is allowable, but hardly imaginable. Mr. Underwood has understood and seen through an artist's eyes much of the world about him.

The best part of the book is the illustrations—seventy of them. They are always clever with a casual loveliness and some of them are completely "cuckoo."

MACHIAVELLI—by Giuseppe Prezzolini. Brentano's—$3.50.

Sr. Giuseppe Prezzolini has done it this time. We believed in storks and Santa Claus for awhile and then they told us there weren't any. In the dime novels we read that Jesse James was a bad man and now we learn that he carried a NEW TESTAMENT in his hip-pocket. George Washington never told a lie—so the eighth grade histories taught us — but Rupert Hughes says "Tain't so."

But we did believe in Machiavelli. He was one of those good old-fashioned villains like Mephistopheles and Simon Legree. But Sr. Prezzolini says "nothing doing" and elaborates on it in a heart-breaking fashion in his new and modern biography of Machiavelli.

Machiavelli, you will remember, was the old Italian back in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries who frightened all the children and statesmen with his book called THE PRINCE. He was the first apostle of frightfulness.

But Sr. Prezzolini says "nothing doing" and points out in a very engaging and convincing manner that Machiavelli really was a rather faint-hearted and subservient clerk and only released all of his suppressed impulses in the gospel of cunning and duplicity that he preached in THE PRINCE.

This biography is illustrated very attractively and the customary excellence of the Brentano format is maintained. The style which Sr. Prezzolini uses has a freshness and vigor that entices the reader from page to page. European writers are found all too seldom in the field of English biography.

Hold Tichenor Prize Examinations Soon

The Tichenor prize examinations in English literature will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 12, and are open to juniors and seniors. The papers will be judged by the Department of English in Northwestern University, and the names of the winners will be published on the commencement programs. The prizes are a first prize of $30.00 and a second of $20.00. Winners of the contest of last year were Herbert Webster, '27, and James Ford, '28.
